

Reviewers for Issues 22.2, 23.1, 23.2, 24.1, 24.2, 25.1

Like all such journals, Atlantis is dependent on the voluntary contributions of anonymous reviewers to maintain the academic standards of the journal and to ensure that a wide range of opinion and positions are reflected in the articles we publish. In the case of Atlantis, we most often draw on the particularly hard-working and hard-pressed community of feminist scholars in Canada. Without their help, our task would be impossible. We are, indeed, very grateful to the following, presented in no particular order:
