JUNE BRINGS CIRCLES

Circles make sense.
Time is logged on one.
Food is eaten from another.
The sun, day, as you know,
Is very round.
The moon, night, is too.
Growth is round, full,
Apples, pumpkins, pregnant.
Barrel hoops hold water and fish
And are circles always.
Brands are often circles
On horses and cows.
Eyes have them.
So do navels.
Rings are round
Go round and round
And back again.
Circles make sense.
People can dance in them.
Circle round.
You circle me.
And back again.
